

>> ART 1B SKETCHBOOK ASSIGNMENTS <<

Name: _____ Period: _____

Keep this paper in your sketchbook. You must complete one drawing every week. You can choose the order in which you do the assignments. Please write the name of the assignment on the sketchbook page.

- Draw your name in wooden blocks
- Draw a rubber duck wearing a costume
 - Draw your biggest fear
- Draw an animal in its natural habitat
- Draw yourself in an imaginary place
- A scientist created a new hybrid fruit. What does it look like? (Choose 2 fruits)
 - Draw your favorite pair of shoes
- Word of the Day >> Skim through a dictionary and find a word that is new and interesting to you and write the word and definition in your sketchbook. Then draw an illustration that explains the word.
 - Use song lyrics, quotes or poetry to inspire a drawing. (Write the lyric, quote or poetry you used somewhere on the page.)
 - Draw yourself in the mirror
- Draw 5 pencils, paint brushes or pens randomly on your paper. Draw them life size and try to make them look real with shading and/or color.
- Carefully cut out an interesting part from a magazine and glue it down to your page. Use colored pencils to create an interesting backdrop.
 - Draw the contents of your refrigerator.
- Draw your hand holding something important to you. Use a pencil and focus on form and shading to achieve a realistic look.
 - Draw a house plant with shading (real or artificial)
 - Draw a chair with an interesting background
 - Look out your bedroom window, draw what you would like to see
 - Lie on the floor, draw what is eye level
 - Draw yourself screaming
 - Draw a piece of cake and make it look DELICIOUS!

Sketchbooks are due at the beginning of class every Friday. NO LATE HOMEWORK ACCEPTED! Homework must be done at home. At least 30 minutes should be spent on each sketch and your drawing should fill the page. The purpose of these assignments is to exercise your creativity, build your perception and develop your skills. I encourage you to push the boundaries and use your creativity and, lastly, be sure to have fun with each assignment.
